(D) Jack's letter of 2 Jan. 1959

Dear Jack:

25X1A

We have reviewed the data on the [ ] case which was contained in your letter of February 19, 1959 and accept your computations on the minor discrepancies where your records were in disagreement with ours.

25X1A

25X1A

On your computation of 13.27 days due [ ] you include 4.58 days which was for a period prior to the contract in question and which should have been billed under Contract BA-732. We examined contract BA-732 and find that [ ] was not entitled to any vacation time under that contract. Part IV — Contract Personnel, of the Schedule, lists all of the entitlements applicable to BA-732.

25X1A

You also include in your total of 13.27 days a vacation balance of 3.61 days. Paragraph 2 of our letter DPD-0189-59 called to your attention that according to [ ] personal contract, pay may not be taken for any unused vacation time.

25X1A

We have arrived at a computation of 5.08 days still due [ ] which was arrived at as follows:

25X1A

6.00 days holiday pay for days which [ ] worked
(.92) less amount of compensatory leave used in excess of time earned

5.08 Days Due

Yours very truly,

Doug
